Particulars of claim

The claimant purchased a Seat Leon (AF70YMC) from the Defendant on 19/08/2025 totalling £11848. The vehicle was rejected (CRA 2015 s20) on 16/09/25 at 9:36am citing multiple defects rendering it not of satisfactory quality (CRA 2015 s9(2)): Non-functional parking sensors, intermittent glitching instrument cluster confirmed by independent diagnostic inspection paid for by claimant on 13/09/25 (£170.36). Diagnostics were also performed by defendant on 30/08/25, 15/09/25 and 16/09/25. Defendant continued diagnostic inspection after point of rejection on 16/09/25 and has continually refused a refund but remains in possession of vehicle since 15/09/25. Claimant sent letter before claim on 18/09/25 offering ADR (Motor Ombudsman) but received no reply. Total £11848 + 170.36. The claimant claims interest under section 69 of the County Courts Act 1984 at the rate of 8% a year from 16/09/2025 to 03/10/2025 on £12,018.36 and also interest at the same rate up to the date of judgment or earlier payment at a daily rate of £2.63.

Read these notes carefully – they will help you decide what to do next.

Court staff can help you complete the reply forms and tell you about court procedures. They cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice you should contact a solicitor or Citizens Advice immediately.

Do not ignore this claim form. If you do nothing.	Judgment may be entered against you without further notice. This will make it difficult for you to get credit.
Time allowed to reply to this claim.	You must respond to this claim form within 14 days of the day of service (or particulars of claim if served separately) The attached forms may be used for that purpose. The day of service is taken as 5 days after the issue date shown overleaf.
If you agree with all of the claim and wish to pay it now.	Take or send the money, including any interest and costs, to the claimant. The address for payment is on the front of the claim form. You should ensure that the claimant receives the money within 14 days of the date of service.
If you agree with all of the claim and are asking for time to pay.	Complete the admission form (N9A) and send it direct to the claimant (see address on the front of the form to which documents are to be sent). Do not send a copy to the court. Entering an admission may result in judgment being entered against you.
If you admit only part of the claim.	Complete the admission form (N9A) and the defence form (N9B) and send them both to the court within 14 days of the date of service.
If you disagree with the claim or you want to make a claim against the claimant (counterclaim).	You must send either the completed acknowledgment of service form or a defence to the court within 14 days of the date of service. If you send the acknowledgment of service you must send a defence to the court to arrive no later than 28 days from the date of service.

Registration of Judgments: If this claim results in a judgment against you, details will be entered in a public register, the Register of Judgments, Orders and Fines. They will then be passed to credit reference agencies, which will supply them to credit grantors and others seeking information on your financial standing. This will make it difficult for you to get credit. A list of credit reference agencies is available from Registry Trust Limited, 3rd Floor, 12 Carthusian Street, London, EC1M 6EB.

Costs and Interest: Additional costs and interest may be added to the amount claimed on the front of the claim form if judgment is entered against you. If judgment is for £5,000 or more, or is in respect of a debt which attracts contractual or statutory interest for late payment, the claimant may be entitled to further interest.

How to pay

- Payments must be made to the person named at the address for payment box quoting any reference and the court case number.
- Do not bring or send payments to the court – they will not be accepted.
- Make sure that you keep records and can account for all payments made. Proof may be required if there is any disagreement. It is not safe to send cash unless you use registered post.
